Dr. Rebecca Branstetter Time Management Hacks to Work Smarter, Not Harder

Have you ever felt like a “testing machine”? Do you wish you could spend less time writing reports and more time supporting students? Are you interested in using AI to free up your time, but not sure where to start? If so, this interactive online workshop is for you!

This webinar is full of time management hacks (including AI tools!) that have been tried and tested by hundreds of school psychologists and shown to reduce report writing time without sacrificing quality. Dr. Rebecca Branstetter, author of the School Psychologist’s Survival Guide, will teach you 5 time-saving hacks and productivity tips specific to streamlining your workflow as a school psychologist (and eliminate weekend report writing!)

Dr. Rebecca Branstetter, Ph.D., is a school psychologist, international speaker, and author on a mission to help children thrive by supporting school psychologists, educators, and families.

She is the founder of The Thriving Students Collective and The Thriving School Psychologist, online communities dedicated to improving mental health and learning supports in public schools. She is also the creator of Thrive Hive TVTM an all-in-one streaming video library of “buzzworthy” tips for parents, educators, and mental health providers to support children’s learning, executive functioning, and social-emotional skills at home and at school.

A sought-after speaker and national media expert, Rebecca’s expertise in supporting school psychologists, parents, teachers, and students in the schools has appeared in various publications, including Huffington Post, Washington Post, NPR, CNN, and Parents Magazine.

She and her husband are proud parents to two daughters and two furry husky dogs in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her TikTok has been endorsed by her middle school daughter as “cringe but good dancing.”
